Mr. & Mrs. Melvin Gambrell
P.O. Box 1943
Asheville, North Carolina

Dear Brother & Sister Gambrell:

We remember your visit to the Broad Street congregation with extreme pleasure. At the conclusion of the morning service, you made a special request of me that I have since forgotten. If you remember what the nature of this request was, I will still be more than happy to fulfill it if you will write making the request again.

Be assured of our interest in your work in Asheville. I know that you are an asset to the church there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
